

Bankruptcy Conference Report H.R. 333:

SEC. 330. Nondischargeability of debts incurred through violations of law relating to the provision of lawful goods and services

(a) Debts incurred through violations of law relating to the provision of lawful goods and services.—Section 523(a) of title 11, United States Code, as amended by section 224, is amended—

(1) in paragraph (18) by striking “or” at the end;

(2) in paragraph (19) by striking the period at the end and inserting “; or”; and

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(20) that results from any judgment, order, consent order, or decree entered in any Federal or State court, or contained in any settlement agreement entered into by the debtor (including any court-ordered damages, fine, penalty, or attorney fee or cost owed by the debtor), that arises from—

“(A) the violation by the debtor of any Federal or State statutory law, including but not limited to violations of title 18, that results from intentional actions of the debtor that—

“(i) by force or threat of force or by physical obstruction, intentionally injure, intimidate, or interfere with or attempt to injure, intimidate or interfere with any person because that person is or has been, or in order to intimidate such person or any other person or any class of persons from, obtaining or providing lawful goods or services;

“(ii) by force or threat of force or by physical obstruction, intentionally injure, intimidate, or interfere with or attempt to injure, intimidate or interfere with any person lawfully exercising or seeking to exercise the First Amendment right of religious freedom at a place of religious worship; or

“(iii) intentionally damage or destroy the property of a facility, or attempt to do so, because such facility provides lawful goods or services, or intentionally damage or destroy the property of a place of religious worship; or

“(B) a violation of a court order or injunction that protects access to a facility that or a person who provides lawful goods or services or the provision of lawful goods or services if—

“(i) such violation is intentional or knowing; or

“(ii) such violation occurs after a court has found that the debtor previously violated—

“(I) such court order or such injunction; or

“(II) any other court order or injunction that protects access to the same facility or the same person; except that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect any expressive conduct (including peaceful picketing, peaceful prayer, or other peaceful demonstration) protected from legal prohibition by the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States.”.

(b) RESTITUTION.—Section 523(a)(13) of title 11, United States Code, is amended by inserting “or under the criminal law of a State” after “title 18”.
